Your Site

Description of the activities that occur at your site:

Employment services for adults with disabling conditions: assessment, job placement, and follow-along services

Description of practicum students' duties at your site:

Vocational testing/scoring, intake interviews, job coaching

Type of population with which students would be working (e.g., adults, adolescents, children, physically challenged, cognitively challenged, etc.):

Adults with varying disabilities, including psychiatric, developmental, orthopedic, and learning disabilities.

Our Students

Undergraduates

Our undergraduate students typically are juniors and seniors with 17-35 credit hours in Psychology. There are exceptions. If you have any special requirements for students who apply at your practicum site, please describe them.

Ability to interact with individuals with disabilities in a non-counseling role

Graduate Students

Our graduate students are students at the end of their first year or some time during their second year in the clinical track of our graduate psychology program. These students need direct service contact with clients, and also need weekly supervision from a licensed mental health professional. Is your site interested in working with our graduate students?

Yes

Hours, Pay, and Commitment

Days and time of days on which you need practicum students:

Is this a paid practicum? Yes X No X

If yes, what is pay rate? Can hire as a job coach (as needed) at $9 per hour; if not hired would be unpaid, and negotiated at interview

What length of commitment (e.g., semester, three months, six months), do you expect from the student?

Negotiable

Application Process

What is the preferred application process (e.g., email/mail resume/schedule an appointment)?

Resume and in-person interview; prefer recommendation from university personnel.

Please provide any other information that would be useful in helping our students to make more informed choices.

May involve some transporting of clients, driving to work sites

Thank You!
